

DATA PRIVACY STATEMENT

1. Personal data

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the 'GDPR').

2. Data Controller

The Ecumenical Council of Walton Local Ecumenical Project (LEP) – usually known as 'Walton Churches Partnership', and thus described in this document – is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The Ecumenical Council complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use personal data for the following purposes: -

- to administer membership records;
- to maintain our financial accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid);
- to provide news and information about events, activities and services hosted by Walton Churches Partnership) and its churches and congregations;
- to fundraise and promote the interests of the churches;
- to manage employees and volunteers;
- to enable the churches to provide voluntary services for the benefit of the public in our local community;
- to provide contact details of officers and others with specific responsibilities (eg DBS signatories) to our sponsoring denominations – Church of England (Oxford Diocese), the United Reformed Church (East Midlands Synod), the Baptist Union (Central Baptist Association) and the Methodist Church (Milton Keynes United Area).

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject has been given; or
- Processing is necessary for carrying out obligations under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement; or
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided: -
  - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
  - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of the church in order to carry out a service to other church members or for purposes connected with the church. We will only share your data with third parties with your consent.

6. How long do we keep data?

We keep data in accordance with the guidance set out in the guide 'Keep or Bin: Care of Parish Records' which is available on request. See section 9 for contact details.

Specifically, we retain membership data while it is still current; gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to six years after the calendar year to which they relate; and church registers (baptisms, marriages, funerals) permanently.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of the personal data which Walton Churches Partnership holds about you (a Subject Access Request or 'SAR');
- The right to request that the Ecumenical Council of Walton Churches Partnership corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for Walton Churches Partnership to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time;
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to object to the processing of personal data, (where applicable i.e. where the processing takes place otherwise than in reliance upon your consent or under legal obligation or falling within the "not for profit" processing in relation to members and non members of Walton Churches Partnership as referred to above.)
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

8. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.

9. Contact Details

To exercise all relevant rights, queries or complaints please in the first instance contact wcp.dataprotection@gmail.com or 01908 582839.
